Nr 3 The Fall 2008

It has been a very rainy summer here in Sweden, and I got a cold two times, not so nice. But Jesus wants us to continue with life, to be happy and serve him.

One Bible verse that has really been in my mind is 1 Cor. 4:20
For the kingdom of God is not a matter of word but of power.

If we earnestly pray, we got power to think right, act right, witness right, talk right, do our worldly work ok. and so on.

To be a Christian is to get power from Jesus to do many good things. Allan Norgren writes everything, except Nathaniel Ndukwes article.

Manna grain - We all need it

In old time in Sweden they had Manna grain on the table. It was small paper pieces with either just the "Bible place" or you must check up the Bible place in the Bible yourself, or both the Bible place and the Bible verse on the small piece of paper.

He will turn the father's heart to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers.
So I not come and strike the earth with a curse
Malachi 4:6

If we aloud Jesus to work in our life = obeying His word, really fight to do it. We will get good contact with our children, and that is very important for our whole country!

You and me caring for our children = Jesus and God are stopping wars and poverty and sickness, can that be true? Of course, don't you believe the word of God?

There are two things that the whole Heaven act upon, that are real love and real prayers.

Do not disturb or awaken the love, before it really wants.
Song of Solomon 3:5

This verse is the foundation law how to witness effectively, when people are ready to hear, then you can really say words that they will never forget, otherwise it's the best to be a loveful human being to others, and that's a thing to fight for also.

John, another apostle, helps us understand that Jesus is the same God who created the universe when he says In John 1: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In Him was life; and the life was the light of men... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

We can see God in what He has created; we can see Him when we read His Word; we can see Him in the person and character of Jesus Christ. Jesus came to help us understand God, and to assure us that God understands us. John goes on to say: No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. (John 1:18). Jesus declares His existence and further reveals the truth about God.

How Can I Relate to Him?

Where is God? There's a popular song that says God is watching from a distance. Or you may have heard Him referred to as a higher power, the man upstairs or a divine imminence. But the Bible tells us He is a person, and that He is near. James, a man history records as the brother of Jesus, tells us that if we draw near to God, He draws near to us (James 4:8). What more could we ask? Does that give you a picture of being cuddled? It should - God longs to cuddle you in His arms.

Have you believed God is waiting to judge you? The Bible says He longs to forgive you. Over and over throughout the pages of Scripture, we read of His longsuffering nature. From Genesis through Revelation, we see a consistent picture of a God who continues to offer forgiveness, up to the very end of time. He is not willing that any should perish, the Bible says, but that all should be saved. The reason He sent Jesus into the world is so that we could all be saved! (John 3:17). Religions teach us we need to earn God's favour. The Bible tells us God's favour is a gift. All He is waiting for is for us to admit our need. Once we confess our sin, His forgiveness is ours. (1 John 1:9)

In today's world, it's easy for us to think that we suffer alone. But if you have wondered where God is, so has someone else. Now that you know who He is and where He is, you can help someone else know where God is, too.

Near the end of the Gospel of John, just before He was crucified, Jesus told His disciples about a comforter He would send, to remind them of all the things He had taught. That comforter, the Holy Spirit of God, came at Pentecost, just a short time after Jesus ascended into heaven. In the first chapter of Acts we read about that event as His disciples were filled with His Spirit and began declaring the Gospel message. To be continued

Jesus likes married women to be home wives, taking care of the children and the home. Of course, the man shall be around.

In Mika 2:9 we can read:

You drive the women of my people away from their houses that they like very much. From their children you have taken away my glory forever (think of this verse for half an hour!).

Before the fall of different civilisation in History you can in most cases see that the women left their homes and began to work, they stopped to take care of their children and their homes.

Of course the man liked it also – now we can buy many things, we've got two wages instead of one.

And they sing in their minds:

“Money, money, money must be funny in the rich mans world” and they said to their children;” now we can buy many things”, but when children don't have a steady home, the other children become their family, and crime and many bad things are coming up in their life.

They don't get either real love in a safe home or not someone who tells them clearly what's right and wrong.

In many parts of the world both parents are working and I think that's very bad, their children get it difficult to get the glory of God. Of course with God everything is possible if we pray, but this is a foundation law that God has given us here on earth.

If you read (“eat”) history, one thing is coming up very strong, that the most common family situation is that the woman is a home wife – next page.

.. and that the husband is a home working man that sometimes does work for others.

In this situation, the family life is working out best.

It is not really love to the children that both parents are working. But it is love to mammon, that is what Jesus is thinking and we cannot serve both mammon and God. Of course Jesus is merciful, if we confess our sins and try to change. He forgives us and will help us with economy and things like that, He has promised that.

Mammon= the treasure of this world.

Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and All other things will be given to you.

Matthew 6:33

You earn a lot to follow Jesus very clearly, He sees to your repentance very much. So don't follow the crowd- follow Jesus! The smartest thing you can do right now, is to made up in your mind to follow Jesus, God and the Bible totally- 100 %.

Good foundation laws for countries:

- Christianity, a subject in school like mathematic.
- Give opportunity for Christians to preach everywhere.
- One of the parents must be home, taking care of the children.

WHO IS GOD?

Where is God?

Where is God? Have you ever asked that question? Most of us have at one time or another. Its answer has more to do with His presence in our lives than with belief in His existence. We want to know -- where is God when I hurt, or where is God when something goes desperately wrong in my life? Our conclusions depend on what we rely on as a benchmark for truth in our lives.

Do you believe the Bible is true, and that it is what it claims to be? If you do, then you recognize that it is the very Word of God. What a great place to begin looking for His presence.

How Can I Know He Exists?

Where is God? If this question still needs to be settled in your mind, consider the evidence for God in His creation. Genesis 1:1 says, in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Do you believe it? Look around at the evidence. Psalm 19:1-2 tells us: The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork. Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night reveals knowledge. God wants us to know He exists. Where is God? We see Him in what He has created.

Do you believe that God wants you to see Him? The Bible says He does. He reveals Himself to us. Psalm 98:2 says The Lord has made known His salvation; His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations. God reveals Himself to us through His creation (see Romans 1:20) and through His Word: All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16).

Finally, God desires us to know Him so much that He took on the form of a man, in the person of His Son Jesus Christ. Consider these words from Paul in Philippians 2:6-8: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross
